2025 Aglow International Virtual Conference – Friday

Greetings Aglow International. I am here to present us with an opportunity to sow into our future. Did you know that we have entered a new day with new keys for the new thing He is doing? I think we all feel that. As I was reading the Book of Songs of Solomon, the second chapter (the Passion Translation), I came across this powerful verse that I speak into Aglow right now. The Lord is speaking and He says, “The season has changed, the bondage of your barren winter HAS ENDED, and the season of HIDING is OVER and GONE. The rains (the outpouring of Holy Spirit) have soaked the earth and left it bright with blossoming flowers. The season for singing and pruning the vines has arrived. I hear the cooing of doves in our land, filling the air with songs to awaken you and guide you forth. Can you not discern THIS NEW DAY OF DESTINY breaking forth all around you? The early signs of My purposes and plans are bursting forth. The budding vines of New Life are now blooming everywhere. The fragrance of their flowers is whispering something. It’s whispering, “There is change in the air. So, I say Arise, my beautiful companion.” To bring it personally, “Arise, Aglow, my beautiful companion, and run with me to the higher place. For now, is the time to arise and come away with me.”

You see, there is an official end to the old season. I think we’ve all sensed that. The bondage of barren winters has run its course. We have been prepped, we’ve been prepared for this NEW PLACE and we are in it NOW. Because we have entered the NEW, there are resources here to serve Aglow’s divine purpose. That means those resources are also here to serve your individual purpose and individual assignments as well.

The seasons have changed and we are called to arise and run with God to the higher place. And, these are the days of the destiny of Aglow breaking forth. Can you sense it? The prophetic words and promises over this ministry are aligned for just the right time. Well, here in Aglow, we have learned to sow into our promises. We sow seed that will birth the promise and sow seeds into our own destiny.

As I was looking at Chuck Pierce’s word over Aglow International from our Aglow US National Conference in Dallas, Texas, in November, he spoke a special word over Aglow using the story of Hezekiah in Isaiah chapter 36 through 38. It speaks of the enemy, Sennacherib, who is spouting threats against God telling the people not to believe Hezekiah, that God would protect them. As a matter of fact, one scripture says, “Beware, lest Hezekiah persuade you, saying ‘The Lord will deliver us.’ Has any one of the gods of the nations delivered its land from the hand of the king of Assyria?” Wow, that’s pretty big talk.

But, God says something very powerful to you, to me, to Aglow today that’s found in Isaiah 36:29 as He addressed Sennacherib. He turned his attention to him and said, “Because your rage against Me and your tumult have come up to My ears, therefore, I will put My hook in your nose and My bridle in your lips and I will turn you back by the way which you came.”

In other words, the time has come that God Almighty is stepping up and speaking directly to the enemy of our resources, our health, our finances, our vision, and our ministry. And, He’s saying... “I’m about to put a hook in your nose and a bridle in your lips and I’m going to turn you back to the place from which you came.” In other words, we are living in this time where the glory and Splendor of God Almighty is beginning, and it’s happening now.

I’m amazed in this passage of Scripture, down near the end, God sent one angel. And, only one angel was needed to kill 185,000 of the enemy. Sennacherib ran home and was eventually killed by his own family. I think God is bigger than our enemy.

And then Chuck gave us a key word from Isaiah 37:30 when it says, “this shall be a sign to you.” And, before I read the rest of that, I just want to put that in context for Aglow International today. The Lord has spoken to the enemies of Aglow International, to the spirits that have tried to isolate us and to keep us from our vision and our purpose. And, He’s saying, “I’m going to take care of them. I’m putting a hook in them. I’m going to lead them away. But, this shall be a sign to you.”

The Scripture says, “you shall eat this year, such as grows of itself, and the second year what springs from the same. Also, in the third year, you will sow and reap, plant vineyards, and eat the fruit of them. And, the remnant who have escaped the house of Judah shall take root downward and bear fruit upward.” Chuck went on to say in his word, that the Lord showed him that this Scripture had prophetic significance for Aglow International for the next three years. And he says this: “And the Lord said to Aglow, you’re going to make it through 2025, and you’re going to make it through 2026. And this is a word to you here. But, in 2027, you’re going to break through, and all those seeds you’ve planted are going to produce fruit in a way they’ve never produced before.” And it was as if the Lord was saying, “I’ve heard my people and they will now press forward the next two years. And, in the third year, 2027, they will come into a place of breakthrough from EVERYTHING they have planted in the past.”

You see, everything we sow in the next three years is going to be important. Our resources, our prayers, because those seeds are going to take root downward to produce the fruit upward.

- » So, I declare over you today as we give, we are sowing into these scriptures for the next 3 years. And, as Solomon said at the front end in his beautiful book, he said, “I declare over you, the season has changed. The bondage of your barren winter has ended, and the season of hiding is over and gone.”
- » I declare over us today that this a new day of destiny breaking forth all around us.
- » I declare over us, this day, the early signs of God’s purposes and plans are bursting forth with a very clear message. There is change in the air.
- » So, I declare over you, we are rising with you Lord, and we run with you to the higher place for our time to rise with you and be swept into our destiny has come.
- » So, I declare that Aglow International, we are a House of Bread to the nations of the world.

- » I declare over Aglow International and over every single person that every one of God's promises over us and over this ministry are yes and amen, and will certainly come to pass as we move toward them in obedience.

We're breaking through every wall of resistance. We're breaking through every hindrance. For this is our new day, and the future is now.

So, Lord, we thank you for this time. We thank you for the opportunity to sow into these promises, for everything that we sow into, it shall come back in ways that are so unimaginable as You want to show Your glory. For this is Your time to speak to Your enemies. And this is our day to walk with You. In Jesus' name, Amen.
